Regarding the Maturity Survey response to Section 6.1.4 Question #2, PG&E answered “yes” that an external third party evaluation is conducted every five years.

ANSWER 002

PG&E conducts biannual public meetings with public safety partners, elected officials, and other interested parties, to solicit feedback related to the company’s emergency response plan (CERP). Although feedback has been solicited no formal evaluations have been received.

Please reference Section 1.9 of the CERP, located on PG&E’s website at the following link: www.pge.com/pge_global/common/pdfs/safety/emergency-preparedness/natural-disaster/wildfires/wildfire-mitigation-plan/supporting-documents/emer-3001m-2023-cerp.pdf for additional information regarding the CERP review.
